We are looking for an innovative and creative teacher to cover a period of maternity leave from January 2027. - Developing and delivering flexible and purposeful, individualised curriculum, often to a small cohort.
- Robust baseline, assessing and tracking of both traditional and non-traditional curriculum and learning programmes.
- Working with internal colleagues, critical friends, parents, and clinicians as well as the network of external colleagues in Local Authority SEN teams.
- High levels of self-reflection, motivation to improve own practice and a solution focused, positive approach to operational challenges.

We believe in a culture of collaboration, empowerment and ownership so that we consistently deliver the best possible experience for all of our children, families and colleagues. We are committed to being part of a community of learners and recognising how we can work collaboratively to be more effective in managing workload and building professional resilience. In securing a post here, you will join a team of dedicated colleagues who enjoy the reward of working with an outstanding group of learners and colleagues who are there for each other.
